Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 3739

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Glass.

See the prior art as described in column 2 lines 23-47, the interferograms are generated to produce height data.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Glass.

Glass provides the teachings set forth above. It would have been obvious to the artisan of ordinary skill to integrate along multiple paths, since this is required to determine which of the pixels on the non-zero sum paths is erroneous and to express the readings in terms of height, since this would render the determination of inaccuracies which are greater than the margin of error of the measurement and thus represent true errors, more readily determinable, thus producing a method such as claimed.
